Minnesota's AIDS Generation

Free online event
Thursday, December 10th, 7:00 - 8:30pm

Join Quatrefoil Library and Brian Malloy for a free online event discussing Minnesota's AIDS Generation.

By 1995, one gay American in nine had been diagnosed with AIDS and one in 15 had died – a decimation of the generation of gay men born between 1951 and 1970. Minnesota's AIDS generation are now senior citizens, but thousands did not survive. This is a painful chapter in our state's history, but also a hopeful story of a besieged community's resilience.

Award-winning writer Brian Malloy will examine the era's moralization and politicization of the disease and provide a personal history of how gay men and their allies came together to save lives in the face of a largely indifferent and hostile nation.

Registration is free, but required. This event is hosted on Microsoft Teams. Follow the QR code or visit https://qlibrary.org/events/ to register and learn more. We can't wait to see you!
